The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday September 17. to Saturday September 21. 1723.

AT the Council-Chamber Whitehall, the 19th of September 1723.

PRESENT,

Their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices in Council.

Their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices in Council were this Day pleaſed to order, that the Parliament which ſtands prorogued to Tueſday the 24th of this Inſtant September, ſhould be further prorogued to Thurſday the 24th Day of October next.

Dublin, September 13.

The following Addreſſes have been preſented to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, to be by him tranſmitted, in order to be laid before His Majeſty.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,
The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, beg Leave to expreſs to your ſacred Majeſty, our unfeigned Thanks for your Care in taking ſuch proper Meaſures, as by the Good Providence of Almighty God, have prevented the Execution of a wicked Conſpiracy, which if it had ſucceeded, would have deprived your loyal Subjects of the Invaluable Bleſſing of your Majeſty's reigning over us, and in Conſequence ſubverted our happy Conſtitution and the beſt Religion that ever was eſtabliſhed among Mankind. A Conſpiracy in itſelf ſo Odious and ſo Deteſtable, that it's not within our Power to declare Reſentments equal to the Enormity of it. We Congratulate your Majeſty upon ſo ſeaſonable a Diſcovery, which we hope will prevent all future Practices dangerous to the Peace of your Majeſty's Government, and the Well-being of your Subjects; and we aſſure your Majeſty, that our unalterable Zeal is ſuch, that nothing ſhall be wanting within our Power, to defend and ſupport your Royal Perſon and Government againſt all your Enemies.

We approach your Majeſty with our dutiful Acknowledgments for the gracious Aſſurance given to us by your Majeſty's Command from the Throne, that the Welfare and Proſperity of this Nation, both in Church and State, ſhall always be your peculiar Care. This Inſtance of your Royal Goodneſs, lays us under ſuch Tyes of Gratitude, as loyal Subjects will always think due, and be ready to pay to the beſt of Princes.

We are ſo ſenſible of the Merits of his Grace the Duke of Grafton, that we cannot in Juſtice forbear on this Occaſion repreſenting to your Majeſty the Satisfaction we have in his being continued our Chief Governour, ſince he has ſo thoroughly convinced us, that your Majeſty's Intereſts and the Happineſs of this Country are equally his Wiſhes and Endeavours.

To the King's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,
The humble Addreſs of the Knights, Citizens, and Burgeſſes in Parliament aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Soveraign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Ireland in Parliament aſſembled, do, with Hearts full of Joy, beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on the timely Diſcovery, which by the Divine Providence, and your Majeſty's inceſſant Vigilance and Care, hath been made of the late moſt dangerous Conſpiracy to ſubvert the happy Conſtitution of theſe Kingdoms, and which by the Bleſſing of God on your Majeſty's moſt wiſe and prudent Meaſures, hath been ſeaſonably prevented from taking Effect.

We cannot more effectually ſhew our Abhorrence and Deteſtation of ſuch wicked and unnatural Contrivances, than by declaring the juſt Sence we have of the many Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's moſt auſpicious Reign, and by aſſuring your Majeſty, That we are determined on all Occaſions to uſe our utmoſt Endeavours to diſappoint all Treaſonable Deſigns and Practices of your Majeſty's Enemies, againſt your moſt Sacred Perſon and Government.

We are bound in Duty and Gratitude to return your Majeſty our moſt unfeigned Thanks for the Aſſurance we have received, (on which we intirely rely,) That the Proſperity of this Nation in Church and State ſhall always be your peculiar Care, and that you have nothing more at Heart, than to make us a happy Proteſtant People. And we are truely ſenſible of your Majeſty's great Goodneſs to us, in continuing his Grace the Duke of Grafton, our Chief Governour, whoſe ſteady Zeal for your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, and prudent Adminiſtration, have rendred him highly acceptable to all your Subjects of this Kingdom.

And we aſſure your Majeſty, that we will to the utmoſt of our Power, ſtand by and aſſiſt your Majeſty againſt all your Enemies both at Home and Abroad, and will with the greateſt Chearfulneſs and Unanimity, grant ſuch Supplies as may be neceſſary to ſecure the Peace and Tranquility of this Kingdom, and ſupport your Majeſty's Government with Honour.

South-Sea Houſe, Sept. 19, 1723.

The Court of Directors of the South-Sea Company do hereby give Notice, That a General Court of the ſaid Company will be held at Merchant-Taylor's-Hall, in Threadneedle-ſtreet, London, on Wedneſday the 25th Inſtant, at Eleven in the Forenoon, being one of the Half-yearly Courts appointed by the Charter, and to chuſe a Committee of Seven to inſpect the By-Laws.

The Court of Directors of the South-Sea Company think it proper to publiſh the following Clauſe in an Act paſſed the laſt Seſſions of Parliament for the Information of all Perſons who have any Title or Demand on the ſaid Company for Moneys paid on the 3d and 4th Money Subſcriptions taken in by the ſaid Company, and for which Stock has not already been allowed, viz.

And whereas the ſaid South-Sea Company did, in the Year of our Lord One thouſand ſeven hundred and twenty, take in two Subſcriptions for Sale of South-Sea Stock at One thouſand Pounds per Centum, which are commonly called their Third and Fourth Subſcriptions, but never gave out any Receipts for the Moneys paid in for the ſame, whereby to evidence the Title to the ſaid Subſcriptions; and whereas by reaſon of the Errors and Miſmanagements of the late Directors of the ſaid Company, their Officers, Agents, or Servants, the Accounts of the ſaid Subſcriptions are ſo confuſed, that it is uncertain how much the ſame amount unto: And whereas in order to aſcertain the ſame, the ſaid Company, or their Court of Directors, have, from Time to Time,
